What is the IAF?

We build unique bridges to make facilitation a way of life

Developing skills toward an unconscious competence

For diverse groups to experience group synergy

What is the IAF?

The International Association of Facilitators (IAF) is a participatory organization with members in more than 65 countries. As a professional organization, we set internationally accepted standards, provide accreditation, support a community of practice, advocate and educate on the power of facilitation and embrace the diversity of facilitators.

Our Mission

Our mission is to grow the community of practice for all those who facilitate, establish internationally accepted professional standards, build credibility, and promote the value of facilitation around the world.

Our Vision

Our vision is to see professional facilitation used throughout the world to address the challenges faced by people in their groups, organizations and communities.

Our Values

We are an inclusive organization with members from all walks of life and different ethnic backgrounds. We are open to different views, perspectives, and approaches to facilitation, with a focus on process facilitation.

Our members ensure we have a global perspective on how we facilitate. How we operate is grounded in professionalism. As facilitators, we are leaders in our field and strive for excellence in everything that we do.

Member benefits

- Professional Development: Opportunities to discover, understand, and practice Group Process Facilitation towards harvesting Group wisdom and facilitating the experience of group synergy and harmony.
- Network: Meet like-minded professionals from diverse communities and walks of life.
- Participation: Participate in learning and practice events and webinars held regularly across our local hubs.
