

promoting the power of facilitation worldwide

Professional Bio – Kimberly Bain

Kimberly Bain is Senior Partner in Bain Group Consulting, based in Kingston, Ontario, Canada. Kimberly is an IAF Certified Professional Facilitator, is past-Chair of the International Association of Facilitators, and holds the appointment of Visiting Scholar at Queen’s University and Adjunct Professor at St. Lawrence College. Ms. Bain also has an Honours Degree in Organizational Psychology and a Master’s degree in Public Administration. In addition, Kimberly is a professional Mediator and has successfully completed over 200 court mandated mediations and dozens of workplace interventions around the world. Kimberly is author of The Reflective Ethical Practitioner.

As an expert facilitator, Kimberly works with groups numbering 5 to 800, helping them reach consensus. Kimberly has been the recipient of two Facilitation Impact Awards. A Silver award for her facilitation at the Canadian Partnership Against Cancer of their work to improve access and outcomes of cancer screening for populations impacted by low income, rural/remote location and immigration status. Also, a Platinum award, for her work with Coloplast A/S facilitating a global consensus on bowel management practice guidance for neurogenic patients.

Kimberly knows that groups of people have great wisdom and together are able to produce amazing results. She is well known for her passion and dedication to the facilitation community and has conducted workshops and seminars in over 20 countries to spread her vision and enthusiasm for the Power of Facilitation.

